

Chicago Area Consortium in Ancient Greek and Roman Philosophy

Northwestern University,
the University of Chicago, and the University of Illinois at Chicago present a conference on
ROMAN STOICISM
April 14 -15, 2000

Home

Faculty

Events

Reading groups

Conference 2004

Conference 2002

Conference 2000

Related links

FRIDAY, APRIL 14

Northwestern University, Harris Hall, Room 108, 1881 Sheridan Road, Evanston

2:00 - 3:45

Martha C. Nussbaum, The University of Chicago :Introductory Remarks Julia Annas, University of Arizona: "Marcus Aurelius: Ethics and its Background:

4:15 - 5:45

John M. Cooper, Princeton University:
"Moral Theory and Moral Improvement: Seneca and Marcus Aurelius"

SATURDAY, APRIL 15

morning sessions at:

University of Chicago, Classics Building, Room 10, 1050 E. 59th St.

9:00 - 10:30

Miriam Griffin, Somerville College, Oxford University:
"The Paedagogic Strategy of Seneca's De Beneficiis"

11:00 - 12:30

Eric Brown, Washington University: "Seneca, Torn Between Two Cities"

afternoon sessions at:

University of Illinois at Chicago, Humanities Institute, Stevenson Hall, Lower Level, 701 S. Morgan

2:30 - 4:00

Brad Inwood, University of Toronto: "Moral Judgement in Seneca"

4:30- 6:00

David Sedley, Christ's College, University of Cambridge: "Stoic Metaphysics at Rome"

If you intend to come and would like copies of the papers, or for more information

Contact e-asmis@uchicago.edu

Copyright © 2003 The Board of Trustees of the University of Illinois

Last revised 10/28/2003

Contact the webmaster