Norms of Freedom in Kant and Hegel

An Alexander von Humboldt Foundation “Kolleg”

April 12-13, 2013

Student Center East
Room 302, 3rd Floor Conference Tower
750 S. Halsted Street (just south of Harrison)
University of Illinois at Chicago

Friday, April 12

10:00 - 10:15 Welcome and opening remarks
   Astrida Tantillo (UIC, Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences)
   Thomas Khurana (Goethe University, Frankfurt/M.)
   Sally Sedgwick (UIC)

10:15 - 12:00 Christoph Menke (Goethe University, Frankfurt/M.)
   “Hegel’s Theory of Liberation”
   Chair: Anthony Laden (UIC)
   Respondent: Mark Alznauer (Northwestern)

12:00 - 1:30 Lunch Break

1:30 - 3:15 Thomas Khurana (Goethe University, Frankfurt/M.)
   “‘You can because you ought to’: Kant, Hegel and the Relation of Can and Ought”
   Chair: Rolf-Peter Horstmann (Humboldt University Berlin)
   Respondent: Angelica Nuzzo (CUNY)

3:15 – 3:45 Coffee Break

3:45 – 4:15 Presentation of the activities of the Alexander von Humboldt Foundation

4:15 – 6:00 Paul Guyer (Brown University), Humboldt Research Prize Recipient
   “Freedom, Law, and Hegel’s Critique of Kantian Morality”
   Chair: Christopher Yeomans (Purdue University)
   Respondent: Kristin Gjesdal (Temple University)
Saturday, April 13

9:00 - 10:45  Dirk Setton (Goethe University, Frankfurt/M.)
“The Law-Effect: Free Will and Self-Consciousness in Kant's Practical Philosophy”

Chair: Karl Ameriks (University of Notre Dame)
Respondent: Rachel Zuckert (Northwestern University)

10:45 - 11:00  Coffee Break

11:00 - 12:45  Stephen Engstrom (University of Pittsburgh)
“Laws of Outer and of Inner Freedom”

Chair: Elizabeth Millan (DePaul University)
Respondent: Dirk Quadflieg (Goethe University, Frankfurt/M.)

12:45 - 2:15  Lunch Break

2:15 - 4:00  Rahel Jaeggi (Humboldt University Berlin)
“Realizing Freedom – Normativity in History”

Chair: David Wellbery (University of Chicago)
Respondent: Espen Hammer (Temple University)

4:00 - 4:30  Coffee Break

4:30 – 6:00  Keynote Address

Terry Pinkard (Georgetown University)
Humboldt Research Prize Recipient

“Freedom as Having Standing: The Space of Reasons and the Space of Causes”